ANZAC REMEMBRANCE

Members of the Branch enjoyed another successful ANZAC remembrance lunch at the Hythe Officers Mess in the Warminster Garrison on Sunday. A short AGM was held before lunch. The High Commission was represented by Colonel John Hutcheson AM, his wife Sally-anne and his children Iseabal and Calum. The Dean of Salisbury, The Very Reverend June Osborne gave the sermon at the Sutton Veny parish church service.

TOM ROBERTS RAFFLE - £150 worth of tickets were sold to guests at the ANZAC lunch and the proceeds will be given 80% to London Legacy and the balance to the Dorset County Museum. The second draw for the landscape copy of Winter in England was made by the donor Richard Thorogood.
